Dear Ms. Sinram:

This is a response to your letter of April 13, 2015. Apparently, I put the expenses for the committee's website design and website host in the wrong place. It was my understanding that these were to go on Schedule B, but they were not contributions to federal candidates/committees, or other political committees, so they did not belong on Line 23 of the Detailed Summary Page.

Please tell me where those expenses should have been reported. Would they be considered itemized independent expenditures? It was my understanding that those expenditures had to be for a particular candidate, whereas the website provided information on both state and federal candidates across many offices.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Kay
